

ピエター・バス

The diagram illustrates the interior layout of a bus, showing the arrangement of seats and the location of the engine. The front of the bus is on the left, featuring a driver's seat and a large circular window. The seating area is divided into several rows of rectangular seats. A black rectangular area at the bottom represents the engine compartment. The plan is oriented horizontally, with the front of the bus on the left.